Damn kids... They're all ALIKE...

But did you, in your three-piece psychology and 1950's technobrain, ever take a look behind the eyes of the hacker?

Did you ever wonder what made him tick, what forces shaped him, what may have molded him?

I <sub>am</sub> a hacker, enter my World....

mine is a world that begins with school.

I'm smarter than most of the other kids, this crap they teach us bores me...

Damn underachiever.

They're all alike.

I'm in junior high or high school.

I've listened to teachers EXPLAIN for the fifteenth time how to reduce a fraction. I understand it.

Damn kid.

"No, Ms. Smith, I didn't show my work. I did it in my head..."

Probably copied it. They're all alike.

I made a discovery today. I found a computer. Wait a second, this is cool. It does what I want it to. If it makes a mistake, it's because I screwed it up.

Not because it doesn't like me... Or feels threatened by me... Or thinks I'm a smart ass... Or doesn't like teaching and shouldn't be here...

And then it happened... a door opened to a world... rushing through the phone line like heroin <sup>Damn</sup> kid. All he does is play games. They're all alike.

THROUGH AN ADDICT'S VEINS, an electronic pulse is sent out, a refuge from the day-to-day incompetencies is sought... a board is found.

"This is it... this is where I belong..."

I know everyone here... even if I've never met them, never talked to them, may never hear from them again... I know you all...

Damn kid. Tying up the phone line again. They're all alike...

You bet your ASS we're all alike...

we've been spoon-fed babyfood at school when we hungered for steak... the bits of meat that you did let slip through were pre-chewed and tasteless

We've been dominated by sadists, or ~~ignored~~ by the apathetic. The few that had something to teach found us willing pupils, but those few are like drops of water in the desert.

This is our world now... the world of the electron and the switch, the beauty of the baud. We make use of a service already existing without paying for what could be dirt-cheap if it wasn't run by profiteering gluttons, and you call us criminals.

We explore...

We seek after knowledge...

We exist without skin color, without nationality, without religious bias...

and YOU call us criminals.

You build atomic bombs, you wage wars, you murder, cheat, and lie to us and try to make us believe it's FOR OUR OWN GOOD,

yet we're the criminals.

Yes, I am a criminal. My crime is that of curiosity.

My crime is that of judging people by what they say and think, not what they look like.

My CRIME is that of outsmarting you, something that you will never forgive me for.

I <sub>am</sub> a hacker, and this is my manifesto.

The U.S. State Department doesn't usually take an interest in the maintenance schedules of dotcom start-ups. But over the weekend, officials there reached out to Twitter and asked them to delay a network upgrade that was scheduled for Monday night. The reason? To protect the interests of That's right, a Twitter crackdown. A lawyer for Jackson Heights social worker Elliot Madison, 41, says that the feds searched his client's house for 16 hours on Thursday after Madison was arrested on September 24th at a Pittsburgh hotel room with another man. What were they up to? Sitting at laptops sending Twitter messages advising G20 demonstrators about riot police activity in the streets. And yet real Twitter threats like Lindsay Lohan and Courtney Love remain at large.

Madison, a self-described anarchist, was in Pittsburgh volunteering for the Tin Can Comms Collective, a group that uses Twitter to send mass text messages during protests describing events observed on the streets or over police scanners; stuff like "SWAT teams rolling down 5th Ave." Tin Can was active during the St. Paul RNC protests, and the authorities are now on to them. Madison was charged with hindering apprehension or prosecution, criminal use of a communication facility and possession of instruments of crime; he's currently out on bail.

WHAT WILL
SGT. JOE FRIDAY SAY ABOUT OUR WORLD TODAY?

"The city, today, has been having alot of share of crime. You look at the streets, the neighborhoods, the community & the building and places have taken out of business from the people who don't make it better or, to say, not even care. The city also has a big crimewave that occurs every single day. Either muggers, molesters, killers, thugs and all of the bad people hurting or killing the innocent, it always occurs every single move you make. Once you look at those people, you think to yourself, "They are the scum of the earth". They're not. They have someone inside them screaming for help and that is where the law comes in. Especially me. I am a cop at the Los Angeles Police Department. I carry a badge. My name is Sgt, Joe Friday. Let me say, people like me, who work for the law, will not tolerate the crime that occurs in your neighborhood, street or anywhere you live. If something goes wrong in your city, we'll be on our way to help you."
